Sola Scriptura – scripture alone - The Holy Scriptures is the sole and final authority in all matters of faith and practice (Further – scripture will interpret scripture)

Prima Scriptura – The holy scriptures are first above other sources of divine inspiration in being the authority in all matters of faith and practice.

We have two lines of manuscript: one originating in Antioch, Syria; the other in Alexandria, Egypt. They are similar yet different. If you read the bibles translated from the Alexandrian text you will be 'ever learning, and never able to come to the knowledge of the truth'.

If you use a Bible translated from the Antioch text the following timeline will completely fall into place. If you use bibles translated from the Alexandrian text it will not be coherent. (E.g. Daniel 9:24 – KJV reads most Holy referring to Jesus; most others read holy place referring to the temple – also KJV reads seventy weeks; Good News reads seven times seventy years and then holy Temple)
